

FOR THE STUDENT

When: Spring of junior year, or the first week of senior year at the latest

Name and graduating year

What I plan to study, and why

A project or assignment I was proud of in your class

A time I struggled in your class and what I did about it

Something I contributed that was not graded

[illegible]

The ask

- ☐ I asked in person, or in a real email — not a group text
- ☐ I asked at least four weeks before the earliest deadline
- ☐ I gave them this sheet
- ☐ I waived my right to read it (colleges trust waived letters more)
- ☐ I said thank you afterwards, in writing

WORTH KNOWING

- ◆ Ask a teacher who saw you improve, not only one who gave you an A.
- ◆ Two teachers who know you beat four who taught you.
- ◆ Give them a deadline a week earlier than the real one.
