

Scholarship Tracker

FOR THE STUDENT

Scholarships are won by volume and by deadlines met. This tracks what you applied for, what it needed, and what came back.

When: Junior spring onwards — and keep going after you enrol

Where to look that most families never do

- ☐ Your own high school’s counselling office list
- ☐ Your parents’ employers and unions
- ☐ Your own employer, if you work
- ☐ Local rotary, elks, lions, church, mosque, temple, community foundation
- ☐ Your state’s higher education agency
- ☐ Professional associations in the field you want to enter
- ☐ The colleges themselves — departmental and merit awards
- ☐ Community foundations in your county

WORTH KNOWING

- ◆ Small local scholarships have far less competition than national ones, and they add up.
- ◆ Never pay a fee to apply for a scholarship. That is not a scholarship.
- ◆ Reuse essays. Most prompts are the same question wearing a different hat.
