FOR THE STUDENT

Ten colleges can mean thirty supplements. This is how you see all of them at once, spot the ones you can adapt, and stop rewriting the same paragraph from scratch.

When: October and November of senior year

"Why us?" — the research you need per school

Two specifics per college. Named courses, named professors, named programmes. Never adjectives.

WORTH KNOWING

- ◆ A "Why us?" essay that works for two colleges works for neither.
- ◆ Search the course catalogue, not the marketing pages. That is where the specifics live.
- ◆ Adapting an essay is fine. Find-and-replacing the college name is not — and they can tell.
