

FILL IN TOGETHER

When: Whenever the price of a four-year degree stops adding up

- ☐ Does my state have a guaranteed transfer agreement (articulation) with public universities?
- ☐ Which specific courses transfer for my intended major — in writing?
- ☐ Is there a transfer-admission guarantee with a named university?
- ☐ What GPA does that guarantee require?
- ☐ Does the four-year school cap how many credits it will accept?
- ☐ Are there scholarships reserved for transfer students?

WORTH KNOWING

- ◆ The degree says the university that awarded it. It does not say where you did the first two years.
- ◆ Confirm transferability in writing, with a named person, before you register for the class.
- ◆ The commonest way this goes wrong is taking courses that transfer as electives instead of requirements.
